Directors Report

Activities since the last board meeting on November 18, 2020

CORONAVIRUS

We continue to have the full staff working in the office and maintenance however we are still trying to avoid contact and promoting social distancing. The office areas and laundry rooms are being cleaned nightly. The community rooms remain closed to the tenants. With the recent increase in cases in Nebraska it is likely I will keep the community rooms closed.

General Business

Audits are complete and we are awaiting the final reports.

Lex Development Corp

We are working toward the "sale" of the scattered site properties to the Lex Development Corp to complete the Section 18 Disposition portion of our efforts to remove a total of 81 units from public housing. We are in the final stretch as we are now preparing the transfer documents and use agreement for HUD review.

Training Dates / Travel

Any training will be done online and business travel is suspended until further notice.

Public Housing 1-50 and Scattered Sites

We are still pursuing the Section 18 Disposition to remove the Scattered Sites from Public Housing and then will complete the RAD Transaction to remove Eastlawn Apartments from Public Housing.

East Lawn Addition (Section 8 New Construction) 51-98
